

Harry Martin Cartoons – Privacy Statement

Plain and simple. I don't track you. I don't care what you look at, read, or download. I just don't care. I respect your privacy just as much as I respect my own.

I do not collect any data.

My web hosting provider does offer some visitor statistics, but I rarely, if ever, look at it. So, they may keep data, but I don't do anything with it. I don't sell it.

Hope that clarifies any questions. Have a nice day.

Thanks for visiting my website.

Regards.

Harry
